

HIGH-VALUE MACHINES AND SUPPLIED OPERATORS

An overturned crane can injure others.

You supply large machines, sometimes with an operator. Rented-out uses, operator duties and equipment values need specific acceptance, with lifted-load custody and heavy-haul road interests considered separately.

RISKS WORTH DISCUSSING

- 01 High-value rental-unit overturns
- 02 Resulting harm from supplied operators
- 03 Road collisions during heavy transport
